American Youth Football New England Region

The American Youth Football 2005 National Championships are scheduled to start the week of (Dec. 4th – Dec. 11th) in Tucson Arizona.

In order to qualify for the National Championships, the New England Region has established a play-off and championship format covering all competitive levels for those AYF members that will be advancing football teams beyond their local league or conference championships. Play-off rounds and match-ups will be based on how many teams are available for each division and could start as early as Nov. 5th 2005. There will be a large and small designation setup for each division except Senior Midget & Unlimited. The New England Region will advance 10 football champions to the AYF National Championships

4 - Large Division 1A (Small) 1 - Senior Midget

4 - Small Division 1AA (Large) 1 - Unlimited 6-7-8 Grade

Elimination Round	Quater Final Round	Semi Final Round	Championships
Nov. 5th & 6th	Nov. 12th & 13th	Nov. 19th & 20th	Nov. 25th, 26th, 27th.

Age and Weight Classification: For National Championships, participation will be the same for Regional Play-offs and championships, regardless of any lower age/weight conference restrictions or an earlier participant age cut-off date than 7-31-2005.

The following table illustrates the age and weight classification for the National Championship competition participation only. If a team plans on competing in the National Championship tournament, you must play within one of the following age/weight classifications. AYF members must determine and clarify all team classifications by Sept.10th 2005.
