AYF/AYC NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Each December, 20,000 individuals travel to Kissimmee, FL to participate in the AYF and AYC National Championship festivities!

The AYF/AYC National Championships are a fun family environment complete with great competition, celebrities, private theme park parties, All Star events, and a Hall of Fame induction banquet.

The AYF National Championships include 23 competitive brackets and one invitational bracket on 10 fields with nearly 180 teams in all All-American divisions (DI and DII), an Instructional division, and 14U, 12U, and 10U Conference All Stars! Everyone gets a chance to shine!

The AYC National Championships is comprised of approximately 250 of the nation's top squads for a chance to compete for a title in AYC's competitive and invitational divisions.

This year's event will be held December 3, 2022 - December 11, 2022.

AYF NATIONAL 8TH GRADE ALL STAR GAME

Over the past 15 years, the AYF National 8th Grade All Star Game has been held in January. All Star Week is an exciting experience for all involved! It's packed with NFL players/celebrity appearances and motivational speakers! Top football players and coaches from across the nation are selected to participate as an All Star. Championship Tournament conferences may nominate players and coaches. In 2021, this prestigious event was held in conjunction with the NFL Pro Bowl Fan Fest in Las Vegas, Nevada. The players, coaches, and staff then attended the 2021 NFL Pro Bowl at Allegiant Stadium.

The Conference All Star Football Divisions Bracket at the National Championships welcomes AYF Conferences to establish post season teams of their top 14U, 12U, and 10U players whose teams did not qualify for inter-AYF post-season play. Conferences are free to design a selection program that best fits their season. Bragging rights for their conference city/state.
